

*“Has he completely lost his mind!?”
“Is he crazy!?”*

That’s right folks! The shocking rumors are true! I have booked a flight and am headed to India this coming May. “What could possibly pull this strange young man from his family, halfway around the world for 6 weeks” you ask. Faith. Destiny. Determination. Hope. A sense of duty and honor to myself and the world I live in.

*“Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no
path and leave a trail.” -- Ralph Waldo Emerson*

Not only will I be expanding my horizons and exploring my faith and artistic vision on pilgrimage to see His Holiness the Dalai Lama at his residence (in exile) in Dharamsala India, I will also be volunteering 3 weeks of my time through a unique volunteer program called Cross-Cultural Solutions (CCS). CCS will place me into a unique program using my artistic and educational skills to enrich the lives of others, as well as gain priceless experiences of cultural exchange and perspective of my fellow global community.

With close consultation with my doctors, wife, and daughter (she gives an enthusiastic “Eeee!”) it has been decided that this short-term overseas trip was a fair and safe compromise to my original minimum 3-month commitment through the Dharamsala Project.

“What’s more shocking than this crazy loon’s dreams and aspirations?” you may ask. I need YOU to help me finance this trip! CCS has a program fee of $2600 which does not include airfare, vaccinations, and other traveling expenses. But have no fear- there’s good news! CCS is a nonprofit organization, so any donation made out to CCS (towards my program fee) is 100% tax deductible. I have also included information on other investment, sponsorship, and donation opportunities in this package for you to further explore this exciting and meaningful journey.

“Love cannot remain by itself-- it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action, and that action is service” -- Mother Teresa

I look forward to answering any questions you may have about this project. I greatly appreciate any donations towards this worthy and meaningful cause. Your financial donation is an integral part to making this meaningful journey and dream come true. I’ve been blessed to have so many supportive and understanding people in my life- and I give thanks everyday to have such kindred spirits amongst me. Thank you for your time and I look forward to sharing this adventure with you!

“Even if it’s a little thing, do something for those who have need of a man’s help, something for which you get no pay but the privilege of doing it. For, remember you don’t live in a world all your own. Your brothers are here too.” -- Albert Schweitzer, Nobel Peace Prize winner, 1952
